

BUILDING FUND DONORS

That the sign of Christ may shine more brightly over the face of the earth . . .

— Lumen Gentium Ch. 2, No. 15

We gratefully acknowledge the gifts of the following people who by their extraordinary financial support have helped to make our building project a reality.

DEDICATION FUND DONORS

We gratefully acknowledge the gifts of the following people who by their monetary contributions have underwritten the expenses of the Dedication festivities as well as the printing of this church history.

In addition we wish to publicly thank the literally hundreds of people, young and old, who enthusiastically prepared the church and school buildings and grounds for the Dedication, who conducted tours, guided strangers, supervised parking, created and set up decorations, prepared and served refreshments, and cleaned up the auditorium. We also thank all the people who could not help physically but who were with us in spirit. God bless you all!

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Many thanks are due the countless people who have made this book possible, themselves cooperators in the work of the Church in the world. Some of them are known only through their manuscripts, notably a Miss Aimee M. Eno, whose History of the parishes of East Aurora, Springbrook, Marilla and Holland, published in 1904, has been the basis for the story of the early years. Another document, unpublished, by a parishioner, Miss Martha Schwartz, created a general outline and filled in many details from 1849 to 1978. Much rich historical background is the result of perusal of A History of the Diocese of Buffalo, published in 1904, compiled by Rev. Thomas Donohue, D.D. Without these documents and numerous mementoes and stories collected by Mrs. Estelle Nuwer Minderler, this work could never have been completed in so short a time.

We are also grateful to the town historian, Mrs. Virginia Vidler, and others in the Town Hall for valuable information and for use of maps, microfilm, and the book, 150 Years in Aurora.

Many helpful parishioners, former parishioners, and townspeople have come forward with stories, mementoes and pictures which have supplemented fragmentary parish records and the existing texts. Among these are the following:

Verna Marshall Benzel, Judy Pfohl Boyer, Michael Carini, Neil Ellson, Daniel and Robert Ernst, Frank and Dorothy Achey Haselbauer, Eugene Jerge, Ruth Schilling Kent, Anthony and Rita Bartz Kibler, Donald Kingston, Sr. Monica Krupinski, S.S.J., Sr. Margaret

Mary Link, F.M.D.C., Alice Logel, Jay and Martha Meyer Marshall, Edwin Marso, Estelle Nuwer Minderler, Lorne and Mildred Beaver Montague, Henry D. and Kathyne Leonhard Norton, Catherine and Juvenelia Ragan, Annabelle Youngers Raupp, George and Mildred Banzer Samuels, John and Mildred Glaser Schwartz, Edwin Leo Smith, Eleanor Smith, Henry and Helen West Spahn, Robert C. and Ruth Youngers Woodward. Although some pictures were not printed, in many instances they served to document times and places.

Special assignments were undertaken by photographers Paul Oubre, Richard Will and Bernard Filizof. In addition Mr. Will processed and printed appropriate photographs as needed. Principal typist was Rose Sugnet with assistance from Nancy Donovan, Florence Kiec, Anne Wentlent and Margaret Zagrobelny. Design and layout is the work of Anthony Rozak.

We are grateful to our pastor, Father Sullivan, for his support and patience as we undertook this project. We are especially grateful to his associate, Father Osiander, for his aid in research, for channeling information and documents, for collecting and recording funds, inspecting the text, and, most of all, for his advice and encouragement.

If anyone's name is omitted we are truly sorry. We have tried our best, with the information and proof available, to get as complete a picture as possible of the work of God in the people of Immaculate Conception parish.

Leonore J. and Louis J. Lambert
